SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION (Check applicable conditions):

1) Following release from imprisonment, the court will evaluate defendant's status and determine whether, after incarceration, drug rehabilitation and mental health treatment are necessary and appropriate. If additional rehabilitation is deemed appropriate, the defendant shall participate in a program as designated by the court, upon consultation with the probation officer, until such time as the defendant has satisfied all the requirements of the program.

2) The defendant shall reside in a residence free of firearms, ammunition, destructive devices, and dangerous weapons.

3) The defendant shall submit his person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computers as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1), other electronic communications or data storage devices or media, or office to searches conducted by a United States probation officer. Failure to submit to searches may be grounds for revocation of release. The defendant shall warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. An officer may conduct searches pursuant to this condition only when reasonable suspicion exists that the defendant has violated a condition of his or her supervision and that the areas to be searched contain evidence of this violation.

4) The defendant shall abide by the sex offender conditions detailed in Part D of the presentence report with one change. The court declined to impose conditions 1, 6, 15, 18 and 19 as they appeared in the present report and modified condition 20.
